COCOA SUSTAINABILITY: WHY IT MATTERS

Buying chocolate made with Rainforest Alliance Certified™ cocoa and cocoa butter helps drive positive change for farm communities in West Africa. Rainforest Alliance standards support international labour laws, fair trade, and promote good agricultural practices. Good for the planet, good for people. www.rainforest-alliance.org

Cococo Chocolatiers purchases and uses only fairly-traded chocolate that has been certified sustainable and that supports farm communities in West Africa. Follow the Frog and read our full sustainability policy at www.bernardcallebaut.com

Proudly Local, Proudly Canadian, and Sustainable

- All of our chocolate creations are handcrafted at our factory in Calgary.
- More than 100 Calgarians deliciously employed!
- We use all-natural simple ingredients with no artificial preservatives, no palm oil, and no artificial flavours or colours.
- We strive towards sustainability both locally and globally, including through membership in the World Cocoa Foundation.
